

AGENDA

California water districts may hold three different kinds of meetings. The first is called a “Regular Meeting,” and requires at least 72 hours-notice to the public. The second is called a “Special Meeting,” requiring at least 24 hours-notice to the public for the Board for more urgent matters that need to be discussed and decided sooner than the time required to notice a Regular Meeting (although other, non-urgent matters can be decided at the same special meeting). The third kind of meeting allows a meeting to address an emergency on no notice to the public.

This Agenda is for a Special Meeting.
